

More Than 100 People Attend Halloween Party

Mrs. E. L. Shepard, 1400 Second Avenue, was the winner of the Frigidaire automatic washer given away Saturday by the Anderson Appliance. More than 100 people attended the Halloween party at the store and witnessed the cooking demonstration by Miss Jane Burt, home economist for Southwestern Public Service Company.

Miss Burt cooked a ham, potatoes, carrots, peas, cookies, and cabbage. The cooking was done on an electric range, emphasizing Reddy Kilowatt. The demonstrator also made fudge for the occasion.

It was an enthusiastic crowd that sat and watched the demonstration and stayed for the drawing later. One of the guests eagerly greeted said to Herschel Anderson, "Gee, Mr. Anderson, this is wonderful. You should do this more often." Many others expressed similar sentiments.

The Halloween party got started at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Dolly York presided at the guest book and before the party was officially over she had more than 100 names in it. The guests appeared to enjoy the demonstration very much and many of them had to stand. When the demonstration was over the guests enjoyed the refreshments which had been prepared by the home economist.

The cooking demonstration was not the only one given. Mrs. Anderson gave an appropriate demonstration of the Frigidaire washer and drier.

Halloween Art Contest Winners Named by C of C

Roland Black, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said Saturday that the Halloween art contest had 19 entries. Six of the entries were from high school and 13 were from grade school.

"Selecting the winners was a difficult job because of the high quality of all the art work. The Chamber of Commerce wants to commend everyone who entered," he said. "A great deal of effort and wonderful talent were involved in the art work. The Chamber was extremely grateful to the business firms who cooperated by allowing the students to paint their windows," concluded Mr. Black.

Don Duncan's painting on Cooper's Market window was selected as the first place art work of the high school entries. Second place went to Virginia Walker who painted the window of The Pharmacy, and third place was the M. E. Moses window painting by Mary Sue Hicks.

A $5 donation was given anonymously to the second place winner.

The grade school first place winner was Jimmy Newton whose painting appeared on the window at Britain Studio. Second place among this division was Karen Brewster's painting on the window of Anderson Appliance. There was a tie for third place. The two who tied were Linda Ann Troth, whose paintings appeared on the Canyon Drug windows, and John Byrd, whose painting appeared on the window of T. A. Black Dry Goods.

A $5 special prize was awarded Bobby Haggard of the grade school entries. The money was awarded by Bob Bellah of Bellah's Market. Bob gave the prize for the best painting on his window. Bobby's painting was chosen as the best in the group.

Maize Harvest Will End This Week in County

By the end of the week most of the maize in Randall county will be harvested and stored in the elevators of the county.

The irrigated crop has made a wonderful yield.

Dry land maize has made much more than was expected a few weeks ago.

R. B. Gist says that he chiseled his maize on the contour and is convinced that this operation returned a much greater yield. Every drop of rain which fell went into the ground as a result of the chiseling on the contour.

Chas. Erwin was in Canyon Monday from his farm in the northeast part of the county and stated that practically all maize had been harvested.

Only a limited amount of maize was stacked on the ground in this county, and all of this was due to smut. The maize which was harvested after being thoroughly dry caused no difficulty at the elevators.

Hallowe'en Pranks But Little Damage From the Boys

There was plenty of Hallowe'en pranks out Saturday night in Canyon, but Sheriff L. S. Johnston reported no serious damage to property.

Mr. Johnston and his deputies watched the boys until early Sunday morning, and warned them that no property damage would be tolerated.

The boys had a great time in soaping windows and carrying away furniture which had not been put out of the way of temptation of the pranks, but this was tolerated by the officers as innocent fun.

All in all, it was a very quiet Hallowe'en, with the younger fry enjoying themselves dressed as goblins and calling upon citizens with their threat of "Trick or treat." Most of these groups were too small to have done any property damage if they so desired.

The worst thing that the older boys pulled off was letting air out of car casings. Sheriff Johnston regretted that this practice was started, but was stopped as soon as his deputies found out about it.

Randall County Near Top Sale Series E Bonds

Only 11 counties of the 46 counties in Northwest Texas have surpassed Randall in the percentage sale of E Bonds. Practically all of these 11 counties were in the smaller bracket, with small quotas to meet.

So far this year, Randall county has a cumulative total sale of $264,571, which is 76.69 percent of the quota given the county. This district has sold 62.60% of its quota; and the state quota stands 61.46%. None of the 11 districts of Texas exceed the total given to Randall county for sales during 1954.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Lester L. Hill, and Dr. J. A. Hill. Dr. Hill paid tribute to the deceased as he knew him as a student in West Texas State. Si had played football for three years and was captain of the Buffaloes during his last year here.

Mrs. J. M. Daugherty is a sister of Mrs. Marchbanks.

November Dollar Day Is Friday

Most of the merchants admitted they waited until the week-end was over to plan their Dollar Day values but several said Saturday that they would have some excellent values come Friday. All mentioned having a large selection of stock for the customer to choose from.

George Nance Is In Serious Condition in Dallas

George Nance has not been expected to live in a Dallas hospital all of this week.

Glenn Dowlen was called to Dallas for the week-end, but returned Sunday night. Mr. Nance was in very serious condition and not expected to live.

Mrs. Nance was advised Monday not to telephone unless there was a change in his condition. No word has been received so far this morning.

Democrats Sweep Nation According Election Reports—Amendments Okay

There was a surprisingly large vote in Randall county yesterday in the general election. Congressman Walter Rogers carried every box in the county which had reported so far to the office of County Clerk Tom Lair.

It was indicated by the first reports that all constitutional amendments had carried in Texas.

The Democrats will control the next House of Representatives, and it is possible that the party will likewise rule the Senate. Newspaper and radio analysts had been predicting for a week that this would occur.

The last minute appeal of President Eisenhower seems to have brought out a heavier vote than usual, but was not sufficient to win the election for the Republican party.

Three boxes have so far failed to report in Randall county, which makes it impossible to secure a full election return.

Farmers Slow In Filling Out Report Blanks

Progress of the 1954 Census of Agriculture is being delayed because farmers have not completed the forms sent to them by mail. This word comes from the Director of Census to John Brazzil, Randall County Agricultural Agent.

Failure to complete the census questionnaire slows down the enumerators. More time and cost to complete the census is the result. Enumerators hit the roads in Randall county Monday morning of this week.

The information which farmers are being asked to supply is not only valuable to them in planning future operations but to business men who supply the farm market's needs. Too, says County Agent Brazzil, the census information on the nation's agricultural resources is of vital importance to the 163 million citizens of this country.

The information furnished by the census questionnaire is held in strict confidence in as far as the individual is concerned. Protective laws do not allow this personal information to be used as evidence in court cases involving federal income.

The cost of taking this census is paid by the nation's taxpayers. Having the questionnaire completed speeds up the operation and reduces this cost. All farmers who have not completed the census questionnaire should give it immediate attention.

Canyon Schools Will Observe Education Week

The week of November 7-13 has been proclaimed as American Education Week. Theme for American Education Week is "Good Schools are your Responsibility." Daily topics for discussion are as follows:

- Nov. 7—"Ideals to Live By"
- Nov. 8—"Teachers for Tomorrow"
- Nov. 9—"Investing in Good Schools"
- Nov. 10—"Working Together for Good Schools"
- Nov. 11—"Effective Citizenship"
- Nov. 12—"Teaching the Fundamentals Today"
- Nov. 13—"How Good are our Schools?"

American Education Week has been observed annually since 1921, when it was established by joint action of the National Education Association and the American Legion. It has always been observed "for the purpose of informing the public of the accomplishments and needs of the public schools."

"Your Board of Education, teachers and students invite you to visit your school during American Education Week. We would like for you to visit the classrooms and if possible have lunch with your child in the cafeteria," stated Joe A. Gibson, superintendent of the Canyon schools.

Farm-to-Market Road Approved

The Texas Highway Commission has taken the first step to inaugurate a new two year Farm-to-Market Road Program for Texas. E. R. Thornton, Jr., chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, stated that the funds for this program are being derived from the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1954, matched with State highway funds on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

James G. Lott, district engineer of the Texas Highway Department at Amarillo, has stated that the following farm-to-market roads in this area are scheduled for work under this program:

From FM 1541 at the McCart place, East, North and East to Armstrong County Line, a distance of approximately 13.4 miles.

Mr. Lott stated that this year the Commission has authorized the development of some roads which will serve the dual purpose of service to the adjacent land as well as aiding in the development of the entire area of the State.

It was announced that work will begin on these projects just as soon as final planning is completed and right-of-way secured. Resident Engineer W. V. York will be in charge of the work in this area.

Election Called Dec. 4 on X-way Bonds

Property owners of Randall county will vote on a bond issue of $900,000 on December 4. The election was called Monday by the Commissioners Court and the date set for the vote.

The original petition called for a bond issue of $750,000, but after discussing the matter for a day, it was decided that this amount would not be enough to buy the right-of-way between Canyon and Amarillo, and a second petition was filed in the larger amount.

The bonds were sold Monday, with the buyer paying the cost of the election so far as the law permits. The bonds will draw 2.11% interest.

Members of the Commissioners Court met with the City Commission of Amarillo Friday, requesting that the city limits of Amarillo be extended at this time beyond the present point at Georgia Street. Due to the fact that the State has demanded right-of-way for a "clover leaf" at this point, which will destroy a great amount of property, the Amarillo City Commission rejected the proposal. It is likely that the city limits will be extended as soon as the expressway is completed—if this is done.

It is proposed that the county start at the south end of the highway north of Canyon and work north on getting a fair value of the property if the bond issue is approved.

George T. Abbott Died Monday at Home Near Dimmitt

George T. Abbott, 73, died Monday at the hospital in Dimmitt where he had been a patient since Thursday. He was the father of Mrs. Walter Graham, who lives in the southwest part of Randall county.

The funeral will be held today at Dimmitt.

A native of South Carolina, he was born Aug. 31, 1871, and came to Texas with his parents when he was 13 years old. In 1889 he went to Spur, and then to the XIT Ranch in 1890 where he worked five years as windmill boss.

He filed on four sections of land 13 miles south and four miles east of Dimmitt where he resided until 1920, when he moved to a new location on his ranch, 15 miles south and one mile east of Dimmitt.

He was prominent in community and county affairs and served as president of the Olton State Bank until ill health forced his resignation.

In 1903 he married Miss Mable Shive, who died in 1912. In 1929 he married Miss Stella Milburn, who survives. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Dimmitt.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Walter Graham, Happy; a brother, Press Abbott, Bovina; four granddaughters, Mrs. Nolon Henson, Jr., Plainview, Mable Graham, New Haven, Conn., Bettie Jean Graham, Waco, and Billie Graham, Fort Worth, and a great-granddaughter, Janice Carolyn Henson, Plainview.

Work Soon Started On Widening Santa Fe Underpass on 87

The Austin Bridge Company was awarded the contract in Austin last week for the four lane underpass on Highway 87 north of Canyon. The price was $210,172.28.

When this job is completed, it will be possible for cars to drive through the underpass without danger. When the highway was first built, the underpass was a two lane structure, and has remained this way during the long months of bond issues and widening of the highway on both sides. The people of Canyon built a four lane highway through the city on Highway 87 more than four years ago, waiting for action to be taken on the state and Santa Fe.

GALVESTON: A 39-member Texas Farm Bureau resolutions committee will meet here Nov. 4-6 to draft tentative resolutions which later will be submitted to voting delegates for adoption, rejection or revision.

The vanguard of an expected 1,500 members will begin registering here Sunday, Nov. 8, for the organization's 21st annual convention. The meeting, at which policies will be adopted to guide the TFB through 1955, will adjourn Nov. 10.

Sub-committee tentative drafts must be approved by the entire committee before they can be submitted to voting delegates. Voting will be Nov. 10. Some 180 counties are expected to send voting delegates.

Dorothy Stubbed Her Toe Before A Record Audience in Amarillo

You have heard the old, old story of the politician who was invited to partake of a bountiful meal before called upon to speak. He refused the food under the guise that he could not speak after eating. After the speech the wife of the politician's benefactor asked how the speech went.

The politician's friend, cocked his good eye to the stars and said dryly: "He had just as well have it."

That was the fix in which Dorothy Thompson left her audience at the Knife and Fork Club the other night. More than 280 persons gathered to hear her speak. She was boosted as one of the greatest orators of the time and a great writer. Perhaps she is a great writer, but she is sure far from being a public speaker.

She was introduced by Wes Izzard, who no doubt felt ashamed for having said such nice things about Dorothy.

She stammered and sighed, and half of the crowd took a nap.

She started with the beginning of history and extolled the way that West Nations felt about the Comanches.

She said that she had a sure cure for the growth of the commie movement, but did not make this clear (or was it at this point when we dozed off?)

For an hour and one-half Dorothy stammered on and on and on and on, but the audience was spared from the question period which is usual in Knife and Fork Club meetings.

Frankly we feel sorry for the man who is to lecture on Nov. 23. Chances are that when Dorothy stubbed her toe, she killed the prospects of the next speaker for a good and attentive crowd.

Sir Winston Churchill Recognizes Youth, But Will Stay on Job

Sir Winston Churchill confounded his friends, and some of his political forecasters, when he recently announced widespread changes in his government. The aging Prime Minister placed the emphasis on youth and made 24 major personnel changes in his government.

It had been widely anticipated that Sir Winston would step down and turn over the reins of his government to Anthony Eden but Sir Winston once again refused to step down. He let Mr. Eden remain at the post of Foreign Secretary, and moved two dozen young men into new positions. The average age of the new officials of ministerial rank is something under 41 years, while the average age of those leaving is over 60.

The fifth reorganization of his government by Sir Winston Churchill since he took power in 1951 reflects the Prime Minister's determination to remain as Prime Minister for several months at least. The world will therefore have the benefit of Sir Winston's experience and his abilities for several more months.

As the best friend the United States has in Great Britain it is with undisguised pleasure that U. S. officials greet the latest Churchill move. The decision of Mr. Churchill to stay in office is a blessing for the United States, and even at 80 years of age—Churchill will be 80 on November 30th—the Prime Minister is vigorous enough to be of tremendous value to the free world.

Speedway Bonds Again Confront The Voters of Randall County

Bonds or no bonds; a speedway or no speedway; $900,000 or nothing!

These are among the various and sundry questions which will be on the lips of Randall county taxpayers until election time.

What will South Amarillo do? Will the farmers of Randall change their minds? What about the voters of Canyon?

What about a 300 foot right-of-way and how much will it cost?

Talked to an Amarillo voter the other day. He said: "I voted blindly for the issuance of bonds to pay the expense of the expressway through Amarillo. I now hear that the amount of bonds issued will not pay the expense of the right-of-way. Will the taxpayers vote for additional bonds, or will they turn down an additional amount? Frankly I have no idea. The word 'progress' was worked overtime, and I was the victim of this nasty little word," was his evaluation.

We shall see what we shall see.

Navy Band Will Play Tomorrow In Canyon to Delight of People

Canyon people are exceedingly fortunate. We can hear good music by either the Buffalo Band or the Canyon Eagles Band.

There is another big band coming this week which is superior to any local band. It should be tops, because it is a government institution, paid for by Congress, and supported by an act of Congress. This is the Navy Band, which will play two concerts in Canyon on Thursday, Nov. 4.

When the Marine Band played two concerts here, it was greeted by a full house. This same kind of an audience will greet the Navy Band when it plays here tomorrow.

If you like good band music, be sure to hear this famous band play.

The church crowd does not always stand for the things the church does, but they are supporting their church.

The world would be a better place and more would be accomplished if we stopped talking about other people.

There are a lot of ways to make big money quickly; unfortunately, most of them are dishonorable.

The radio newscasters are in a class all by themselves, as are often their conclusions on the news.

An unintentional error is often stupid but not as stupid as the derision which sometimes greets it.

The resort advertisements from Florida and California will soon begin to disturb us again.

Cancer and Cigarettes Again in The Eyes of People of Nation

The Public Health Cancer Association, an organized scientific society, meeting recently in Buffalo, adopted a resolution urging Americans to stop smoking cigarettes. It is thought to be the first formal action by such an organized body in the lung cancer-smoking controversy.

The resolution read as follows: "Resolved, that there is sufficient evidence available of a relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer to justify advising the public to stop smoking, cigarettes as a means eventually of lowering the incidence, and to advise the youth of America to ponder well the question whether the risk entailed is worth the pleasure derived."

The resolution, by a vote of 13-to-three, came after a panel discussion at which several public health specialists agreed that smokers were risking lung cancer. Six medical men, included in the panel discussion, the morning before the resolution vote, concluded that the evidence gained from studies all over the world "is in favor of the conclusion."

While we do not propose to be medical experts, we view this action, after a panel discussion by medical experts, as very significant. No doubt there will be many American who prefer to take the risk involved rather than stop smoking, but it seems to us that they no longer can deny the evidence which warrants at least the sober appraisal of every smoker.

We especially advise youngsters—who do not yet have the habit of smoking—to carefully consider medical words of caution in developing their habits, so that they will at least have full scientific knowledge of all the latest facts and consequences.

Coffee Prices Are Out of Line Say the Experts of Country

The Federal Trade Commission has decided, in the interest of the public, to call a hearing December 14th on its charges against the New York Coffee Exchange. Meanwhile, the Senate Banking and Currency Committee is conducting an investigation of its own, and recently Senator J. Glenn Beall, Maryland Republican, said price increases in coffee have been unjustified.

The Maryland Senator said Americans have been forced to pay almost a third of a billion dollars in increased coffee prices since January of this year. He said it was necessary, in order to protect the public interest, to have "remedial legislation" to prevent further manipulations in the coffee exchange.

The Federal Trade Commission has charged that the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange has "contributed to" 1954 coffee price increases by an "unlawful restraint" of trade.

Despite the protestations of one Gustavo Lovo, Jr., president of the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange, we believe activities of the exchange should be regulated. It is also obvious to us that estimates made this spring, by coffee experts, that a shortage would develop later in the year, were unduly pessimistic and contributed to the sharp price rise of coffee this year. We hope Congress will enact the necessary legislation to protect the public.

Hot Elections May Cool Off if Not Enough People Cast Votes

Perhaps there were many "foreigners" who thought we had a red hot primary election in August when Governor Shivers was re-nominated. Perhaps many of these same persons hoped to get into Texas in time to vote in the next primary election, and to enjoy some of the hot times.

The same is true of Texas today. A lot of Texans would like to be in the midst of the election fray in other states where the ways of the politicians are red hot.

Since this is written long before the election, we are not convinced how the issues will turn out. Perhaps you are a better guesser than we are. If so, just drop around before the voting starts and tell us what we may expect, and how many voters took the time to go to the polls on Tuesday of this week.

It is generally true that the world's most honored individuals are those who do not lose the common touch, or the simple pleasures in life.

We know a couple who celebrated a recent football week-end by smashing the front of their car into another and killing two people.

Now that summer is ending, and there will be more time indoors, be sure to renew your subscription to The Canyon News.

It is easy to economize on your church contribution, especially if you don't have much interest in the church's activities anyhow.

The best stores in this community advertise, and carry displays of their merchandise right into the homes of the community.

A lot of people who borrowed money in the last two years are now realizing that it's easier to borrow than to pay back.

We often wonder who writes the slushy words to song hits and why they are usually allowed to go free afterwards.

It is hard to believe but another Thanksgiving, with turkey and all the trimmings, is only about a month distant.

The smart football coach has an excuse before the game why he should lose—and there are a lot of smart coaches.

In political contests there is always a tendency to pick the winner and that explains the activities of a lot of people.

Work will be started on an office in the Bradford building for the Western Union office.

The stock market hit a snag this week, with millions of dollars being lost Friday.

Mrs. Marion Dillon was appointed postmistress at Happy, succeeding Mrs. Eva Currie.

O. W. H. Cook, manager of the C. O. Keiser estate, has the sales barn in readiness for the big sale which starts Monday north of Canyon.

Two inches of rain, followed by cold weather and a light snow, fell Sunday through Tuesday.

A survey of the highway west from Canyon to the Deaf Smith county line was started. In Umbarger four buildings will be moved in order to secure a right-of-way 100 feet wide.

Korean Needs To Be Stressed by Methodist Church

Methodists throughout Texas will join others of their denomination across the nation by honoring members of their congregation who have served in Korea and making a contribution to the Bishops Appeal for Korea designed to raise $1,000,000 for emergency needs in Korea, according to Bishops William C. Martin and A. Frank Smith of the Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston-San Antonio areas of the Methodist Church respectively. Special worship services will be held on Sunday, Nov. 14 for the special observation because of the conflict with a national temperance meeting being held in Dallas on Nov. 14.

Novel feature of the service will be the presentation of the offering in miniature "rice bags," symbolic of the sacrificial offerings of rice which the Koreans themselves reportedly have given to rebuild their war-ravaged sanctuaries.

This special offering has been approved by the Methodist Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance.

Seventy per cent of the receipts from the offering will be administered through the denomination's Division of World Missions and 30 per cent through the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

THEY REALLY ARE

Two little girls were playing and one pretended that she wanted to rent the other's playhouse. "Have you any parents?" asked the owner of the playhouse. "Yes, two," was the reply. "I'm sorry," said the tiny landlady, "but I never rent to children with parents. They're so noisy and destructive."

Styles R. Bridges, U. S. Senator from New Hampshire: "I am tired of being afraid of the Russians—it is about time the Russians started to be afraid of us."

President Must Show His Hand On 1956 in the Near Future

By STANLEY JAMES
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON: The pressure will soon be on President Dwight D. Eisenhower — to say whether he will be a candidate to succeed himself in the White House in 1956. Although that election seems like a long time off, come January and the first session of the 84th Congress, questions will start being asked.

For one thing, the meeting of Congress in January will pose the question whether the President will adopt a policy of waiting to get the rest of his legislative program enacted. If he waits, then he must wait for the 85th Congress, which meets in January of the year following the 1956 presidential election year.

There is little chance the President will be able to get much of the remainder of his legislative program through Congress in 1955 and 1956. If he is thus frustrated, he might be inclined to run again, in an effort to see more of the program enacted.

Republican leaders are sure to be pressing the President in the next session to see what he intends to do. These leaders will be the legislative leaders of the Republican party up to election day, 1956, and they will want to know so they can make plans accordingly, both for the party and for themselves.

The President might hold off until six months before election time, as did President Harry Truman in 1952, but that is doubtful. Most people expect him to make up his mind before that. Ike's decisions are generally made readily and the President is not one to dilly-dally on the brink while musing over the question whether to make the plunge.

It may well be, then, that Ike will make his intentions known next year — or at least give his own party leaders enough of a hint to satisfy them. The guessing has it that Ike will offer for re-election, and that Adlai Stevenson will be his opponent — a return match, in other words.

FOREIGN INVESTMENTS

Foreigners have been increasing their investments in this country since the end of World War II and the value of their holdings here now approaches $24,000,000,000 — three times what it was before the war. In addition to these investments, other nations and their central banks have been building up their reserves — and, in the process, Uncle Sam's stock of gold has dropped by $3,000,000,000 in the last five years. However, the Federal Reserve Board reports that the private demand for gold the world over is now at a postwar low.

MASK CATCHES FIRE

Baltimore, Md. — A little boy, James Gordon, 4, was badly burned about the head, face and left arm, when a Halloween mask he was wearing caught fire when the child was playing with the cigarette lighter in his father's car. The mask was of plastic material and covered just the eyes and nose, with false eyebrows and a mustache.

ALPHABETICAL FAMILY

Glen Ullin, N. D. — When their first child arrived more than 20 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tibor named him Albert. Then they decided to follow the alphabetical theme in naming any more children. They're now halfway down the alphabet, with the latest child named Marie. One boy, Ernest, died of leukemia. The other 12 are living.

SURPRISED THIEF

Tyler, Texas. — A pistol-brandishing bandit entered a local company office, forced the night watchman, A. R. Phillips, into a closet and headed for the safe. In it, he saw a bulging money sack and fled. The sack contained 2,100 bus tokens.

GLAD FOR ARREST

Oklahoma City, Okla. — For one time in his life, Alvie Watham was glad to be arrested. Officers, arriving at his home, jerked Watham out of a burning bed where he had gone to sleep with a lighted cigarette in his hand. He was charged with four separate traffic violations.

HEN LAYS GREEN EGGS

NOT SO THANKFUL

Chicago. — Mrs. Bertha Wians was about to thank a "customer" for chasing two boisterous boys out of her grocery store, when the man whipped out a pistol, robbed her of $60 and fled.

People Pay For Large Number Of Auto Fires

The National Automobile Theft Bureau, cooperating with the Southwestern Insurance Information Service of Dallas, in an information and education program, today reported 2,500 "suspicious" automobile fires in Texas during 1953, representing an insurance loss of well over $1,500,000, Darby Hammond, executive secretary of the Service has announced.

Hammond said, "While such losses are immediately borne by the insurance industry, the public should recognize that in the final analysis policy-holders who pay automobile fire insurance premiums eventually pay the bill through increased rates."

The NATB report was prepared for the Southwestern Insurance Information Service by C. C. Benson, manager of the Bureau's Texas division in Dallas.

"These losses," according to Mr. Hammond, "can be classified as 'questionable' because they definitely have one or more of the tell-tale factors or circumstances involved. That is, a poor financial background, poor mechanical and physical condition of the vehicle, a long history of repairs, and immediate breakdown just prior to the fire, a preposterous and most obviously exaggerated story concerning the inception of the fire, and more important still, fire damage to such an extent and intensity as to be absolutely impossible without having the aid of inflammables," he said, and added, "Of the estimated 2,500 'suspicious' losses, no less than 75 per cent occur geographically in an area that can be described as East, Central, and Southeast, Texas."

"One of the most interesting analysis of 'suspicious' fires comes from a study of location or scene of loss. There is absolutely no relationship between the frequency of total fire losses and the concentration of motor vehicles in a given place. In fact, seldom indeed is the total constructive loss which occurs on a busy highway, in mass parking areas, or on busy city streets, bridges, underpasses or tunnels. More than 90 per cent of the total 'suspicious' fire losses occur in rural areas, usually on an unimproved and infrequently traveled road, where witnesses are not likely to be encountered," Hammond said.

Other factors involved in many of the total fire losses outlined by the report included: (1) Suspicious total fire losses generally occur at a time when the vehicle is only occupied by the driver or at most, a relative or close friend; (2) Practically none occur while automobiles are in possession of women drivers—yet figures indicate women do at least one-third of all the driving;

(3) Rare are total fire losses to fleet operated vehicles, such as automobiles owned by governmental agencies, utility companies, oil companies, taxi cabs, and motor freight lines;

(4) Equally scarce is the total fire loss on a motor vehicle which is fully paid for, and in fact, most frequently, the opposite is all too obvious—the vehicle was over-sold in the beginning, the owner had little or no equity invested, there was a history of delinquent or slow payments, and all too often the existing mortgage exceeded the sound value of the automobile prior to the fire.

"More than adequate experimentation has been conducted during the past 20 years by the NATB, establishing consistently and conclusively that there is no real fire hazard in an automobile in its normal operating condition," Hammond concluded.

Major crimes in this country increased 8.5 per cent in the first half of this year over the similar period of 1953, according to a report by F. B. I. Director J. Edgar Hoover. A major crime was committed every 13.8 seconds, and an average of 35 persons succumbed daily of felonious attacks.

Soll-Aufleger Wedding Is Announced

Supper Honors Miss Ila Lewis

Miss Ila Lewis, teacher of mathematics in Amarillo High School, was honored on October 30 with a buffet supper in the home of Miss Edna Graham.

Miss Lewis spent the year of 1952-53 teaching in the American School in northern Germany. She was youth counselor for the Army Post thereby having a wonderful opportunity to study the youth movement over all Western Europe.

She drove thousands of miles in her own car and took hundreds of pictures of the 18 countries through which she traveled. Her experiences, together with 150 colored slides of Germany and Holland, were shared with members of her sorority, Delta Kappa Gamma, who live in Canyon.

Members present were Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, Dr. Ima Barlow, Misses Ada V. Clark, Elva Fronbarger, Sarah Thompson, Mae Simmons, Darthula Walker, Mesdames John Davis, E. D. Harrell, T. H. Knighton, Alma Perkins, C. A. Pierle, Nancy McCaslin, Tip Bradford Carruth, Ann Wofford, the honoree, Miss Lewis, and the hostess, Miss Graham. Mrs. Mary Sliagar and Mrs. I. F. SoRelle were guests.

After the pictures were showed and discussed by Miss Lewis, the group asked many questions. These were answered with zest and sympathetic understanding by Miss Lewis who believes many Germans were opposed to the tactics of Hitler and to fighting World War II. She also believes that much in the future depends upon the present training of German youth.

Glenn Tucek, a Canyon Future Farmer showed the Junior Champion and Grand Champion Milking Shorthorn at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas. The animal was selected fitted and shown under the directions of Waylon Carroll and T. L. Devin, teachers of vocational agriculture in the Canyon High School. Sam Von Rosenberg, manager of the American Dairy Association, presented Glenn with a Grand Champion plaque and also a miniature of a milking shorthorn cow. Shown in the picture, left to right, are Waylon C. Carroll, teacher of vocational agriculture, Canyon, Sam Von Rosenberg, manager, American Dairy Association, Austin, R. E. Gracey, president of the American Dairy Association, and Glenn Tucek, owner of the animal and a Future Farmer from Canyon.

Farm Families Included in Social Security

The 1954 Amendments to the Social Security Act now bring Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance to most farm families. These amendments go into effect January 1, 1955, and make two main changes concerning farm people. These major changes will be explained below.

Coverage of Farm Employees

If you hire farm help on your farm, or if you do farm work for other farmers, the following changes are important to you:

1. Whether farm work is covered for social security purposes, starting January 1, 1955, depends on the amount of cash wages earned, not on the number of days worked. Any employee paid $100 or more in cash wages for farm work during a calendar year is covered for social security purposes.

2. If you are a farm worker and have earned this social security coverage, be sure to show your social security card to your employer. If you are the employer, be sure to demand that you see the worker's card so you can copy his name and number directly from the card. You must have this information when the social security tax return is made, and only by copying the name and number directly from the card can you be sure you have this information accurately.

3. Cash wages of less than $100 in a year are not covered for social security purposes and will not be reported.

If you operate your own or a rented farm, the following changes are important to you:

1. If your net profits are as much as $400 in 1955, you will make a social security report on these profits early in 1956 when you file your 1955 income tax return.

2. Even if your net profits are less than $400 in a year you may, on a voluntary basis, report for social security purposes up to one-half of your gross income before expenses, not to exceed $900.

3. This voluntary coverage applies only if you have net profits of less than $400. Coverage is compulsory if your net profits are as much as $400.

Purpose of Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance

1. To pay retirement insurance to covered employees after reaching age 65, and in some cases to the wife or children of such persons.

2. To pay survivors insurance, in monthly payments, to the survivors of deceased workers.

How the Program Is Financed

1. For employees, the tax rate is 2% of the cash wages paid, with the employer paying a matching tax of 2%.

2. For the self-employed farm operator, the tax rate is 3% of net profits up to a maximum of $4200 per year.

For Further Information

Any social security office will be glad to supply further information. The social security office for the Texas Panhandle is located in room 324 of the new post office building in Amarillo. Regular visits, at least one a month, are made from that office to practically all county seat towns in the Panhandle. Visit, telephone, or write that office for further information or for a special pamphlet concerning Social Security For Farm Families.

WHERE HE WAS

Motorist — It's not my fault. He was crossing in the middle of the block.

Policemen — Don't tell me that. He's lying right here at the street intersection.

Motorist — Well, he was in the middle of the block when I hit him.

PROOF

Jean — Mae is at least 25.

Sally — She never told you, did she?

Jean — Not exactly, but she said a girl shouldn't marry before she is 26.

SHUCKS

With the new curve-eliminating fashions on their way, it's now proper to compliment a lady by saying, quote, "She doesn't look a day over 25 or an inch over 36."

In Paraguay there is a firefly called the railway beetle, which flashes a red light at the ends of its body and a green light along the sides.

Florida, the last of the territory owned in North America by the Spaniards, was ceded to the United States in 1819.

Atkinson Is On Executive Baptist Board

Rev. Strauss Atkinson of Canyon is among the newly-elected trustees of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

The Board, composed of Baptist pastors, laymen, and women who transact the BGCT's business between annual sessions, was elected during the 69th annual meeting held last week in Fort Worth.

The convention elected Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of Lubbock's First Baptist Church, as president, and Dr. Robert E. Naylor, pastor of the Travis Avenue Baptist Church, Fort Worth, as vice-president.

Rev. Carroll Ray of the Central Baptist Church, Pampa, was named second vice president.

Messengers to the convention named Dr. W. Herschell Ford, pastor of the First Baptist Church of El Paso, to preach the annual sermon at next year's convention, to be held October 25-27 in Houston. The alternate is Rev. W. L.

Shuttlesworth, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Tyler.

Joe Trussell of Houston was chosen as music director for next year's meeting, and Corpus Christi was picked as the 1956 convention city.

An average of 7,800 Baptists each day heard their elected officials report on the year's work and plan for the future. Convention speakers called for a return to simple faith as an answer to today's uncertainty and despair and expressed their belief in a strong missionary program to hold the line against Communism. To help in this aim, the Baptists approved a record $17 million Cooperative Program and major gifts budget.

In its first year, millions of motorists have proved the benefits of Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

Here are the facts proved by millions:

1. TCP boosts your car's power as much as 15% (because it neutralizes power-robbing lead deposits).
2. TCP gives you extra gas mileage (motorists report up to 3 miles more per gallon).
3. TCP is just like an engine tune-up (because it lets you enjoy all your car's built-in power).
4. TCP increases spark-plug life up to 150% (because it actually fireproofs your spark plugs).
5. TCP makes it possible for you to enjoy all the extra performance of Conoco Super's higher-octane rating.

But don't take our word for it! Read what motorists, themselves, say about Conoco Super with TCP.

1 "I remember when tetraethyl lead was first put into gasoline 31 years ago. Now comes Conoco Super with TCP! It's lived up to my '51 Mercury—and now I get 3 more miles to the gallon."

Mr. John T. Knudsen, Traffic Officer
3089 South Fourth East, Salt Lake City, Utah

2 "Conoco Super with TCP is doing everything it's promised in giving our '53 Cadillac extra mileage, power, and performance. We won't take any other gasoline, because TCP has no substitute."

Mr. S. E. Brooks, Retired RR Engineer
107 North Third, Belen, New Mexico

3 "I maintain four cars and three trucks. In all of them, it's Conoco Super with TCP. I'm getting new-car performance! Starting on cold mornings is 50% better. I'm sold on Conoco Super!"

Mr. Ray B. Crowley, Wholesale Florist
Littleton, Colorado

4 "Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP does the job as no other gasoline has done before. My 1950 Chevrolet runs quietly, doesn't make knocking noises, starts right up and goes farther to the gallon."

Mrs. S. J. Crosby, Housewife
415 West 6th Street, Anaconda, Montana

5 "Conoco Super with TCP is a vitamin tonic for my '48 DeSoto. The engine starts promptly. And the mileage savings are like getting up to a gallon and a half of free gas to every tankful."

Mr. William Grabowski, Electrical Contractor
482 North Wirth Ave., Elgin, Illinois

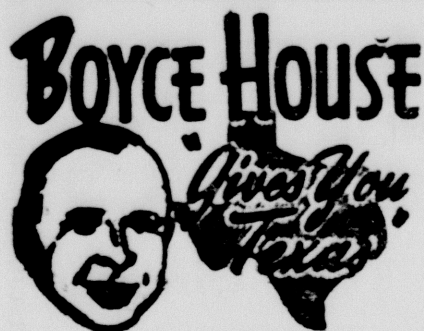

After one full year, there's still no substitute for
Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

YOUR GUARANTEE

The trademark, TCP, is your guarantee that you are getting the full benefits of "the greatest gasoline development in 31 years." Only Shell Oil Company and its licensee, Continental Oil Company, have TCP.

The history of Waxahachie and Ellis County is peopled with men of courage and individuality. For example, there was the surveyor, Col. James E. Patton, who had no chains; so he took a piece of rawhide, hobbled himself so that his step would be one vara and made his measurements. He located the Ellis County school lands and the county is indebted to him for the judgment displayed in locating the lands. In 1846, Hans Smith opened a small store in the county. Tradition says that he had been a prominent figure in politics before coming to Texas and had almost defeated Thomas H. Benton for the United States Senate in Missouri. (Benton, as floor leader of Andrew Jackson's administration, debated with Clay, Webster and Calhoun). A contemporary in Ellis County has recorded that Smith was "a man of finely cultivated intellect, a fluent, silvery-voiced speaker." Smith built the county's first cotton gin and was the first member of the legislature from Navarro County (of which what is now Ellis County was a part). One wonders why a man with the brilliance of Hans Smith turned his back on a career of potential political greatness to come into the wilderness. A group of citizens bound for a settlement sighted a band of Indians and one man suggested a prayer but the Rev. R. M. White said, "A scared prayer does not avail much, if anything." (The redskins proved to be peaceable.) Red Oak's first postmaster was David Mitchell, who also was justice of the peace. He had a sense of humor as this return he wrote on a marriage license reveals: "I executed the within on Wednesday night And changed her name to Mrs. Wright; May heaven's blessings crown their joys

And fill their arms with girls and boys." Waxahachie had its beginning in 1847 when Major Emory W. Rogers, a native of Alabama, built a log home. He and his wife had come to Texas in 1837. Rogers selected 640 acres; the business section of the city today stands on that ground. The Rogers' home was known for its hospitality. The Methodist Church was organized there, with eight present. Elections and court sessions were held in the home. When the county seat was to be selected, Rogers' liberal donation of land was the deciding factor. He had built the cabin at an angle and did not want the building moved, so the streets of the new town ran at an angle, too.

The land for the cemetery and for the Methodist Church was given by Rogers, who also donated ten acres and $1,000 for a college. He was a major in the Twelfth Texas Cavalry in the War between the States. The pioneer served his county as treasurer and also was a member of the State Senate. Rogers built a two-story hotel, which burned in 1882. On the site of the log cabin built by the city's founder now stands the Rogers hotel. Theodore Roosevelt discovered the Teodoro river in Brazil which newspapers called the River of Doubt until its existence was confirmed. Fleet Street, London, is the home of England's newspaper offices.

New Loans Are Available For Farmers Uses

Randall county land owners may greatly benefit from the new soil conservation and water facility loans. This is a new type of credit, government insured but advanced by private lenders, extended to all states by the 83rd Congress.

One of the more important items in this new farm credit is the financing of irrigation projects. Randall county land owners could well use this type credit to expand irrigation on their farms.

The agency responsible for making these loans is the Farmers' Home Administration. A representative of this agency is in Canyon every Monday and Thursday mornings. This representative meets in the Randall County Courthouse on the bottom floor across the hall from the County Agent's office.

A three man committee composed of two Randall County farmers and one Canyon business man may approve loan applications from this county. The loans can be used to pay cash costs of materials, equipment, and services directly related to application of establishment of soil and water conservation practices and water facilities.

Information on interest rates, length of loan, security, and loan uses can be furnished by John Brazzil, Randall County Agricultural Agent, or by the representative of the Farmers' Home Administration.

Miss Loula Grace Erdman returned Sunday from New York where she had been in conference with the publishers of her books.

Capt. and Mrs. James D. Watts and children of Ft. Campbell, Ky., are visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Hattie Brasuel.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

Sherman Adams, staff chief to the President, remains convinced that Mr. Eisenhower will not accept nomination to a second term if the elections of this year produce a defeat for the Republicans.

Mr. Eisenhower is giving more and more signs that he considers the job of being President an onerous one and that he would like to be back in private life. One sign among several is the offhand remark to some West Point alumni: "Just give me a little time and I will be back in the crowd cheering for some other poor sucker who's up here."

President Eisenhower has admitted to friends that he finds criticism of his Administration hard to take, even though criticism may be a prerogative of political opponents.

Paul Hoffman, who had been close to the President, somewhat miffed Mr. Eisenhower by turning down a request that he accept appointment as U. S. Ambassador to India. Mr. Hoffman begged off to the chagrin of the White House. Mr. Hoffman is reported to have suggested that he might accept a roving ambassadorship to the countries of Asia.

Senator Joseph McCarthy received last minute overtures from some officials high in the Eisenhower Administration, asking him to campaign actively for Republican candidates. Earlier, these same officials had sought to discourage any campaigning by the Wisconsin Senator.

William Knowland, Republican Senate leader, is going to have a very difficult time trying to keep the coming special session of the Senate from wandering far afield from the question of censuring Senator McCarthy. For one thing, a big legislative fight and debate is brewing over the contract that President Eisenhower ordered signed with the Dixon-Yates electric-power combination to produce power for the Atomic Energy Commission.

A group of 10 to 15 Republican Senators is prepared to talk a long time in the Senate on the issues raised by the proposal to censure Senator McCarthy.

More than one member of the Eisenhower Cabinet is planning to return to private business early in 1955 if the Democrats take control of Congress. A number of top officials had come to Washington for what they thought would be one year and already have stayed two. Mr. Eisenhower may find it difficult to induce businessmen to stay longer.

Frank Lausche, four-time Governor of Ohio, regarded as a sure-fire choice of voters for a fifth term, is to be a factor in the next Democratic National Convention. Mr. Lausche is a proved vote getter in Ohio but, as a Catholic, runs into the barrier that helped to defeat Al Smith, when his mind turns to thinking of higher office.

Estes Kefauver, Tennessee Senator and 1952 candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, is almost assured of control of the Tennessee delegation to the next Democratic Convention now that "Boss" Edward Crump, his arch political foe, is dead. Senator Kefauver is hard at work on electric power as one issue to be dwelt upon in the future.

Thomas Dewey, retiring New York Governor, is reported to be assured of an income of $200,000 a year in a top-level legal job offered him. Mr. Dewey is expected to return to politics once his personal fortunes are improved.

Averell Harriman's name will move high up on the list of Democratic aspirants for the presidential nomination in 1956 if he becomes Governor of New York. The Governor's job in New York has been a traditional steppingstone to the presidential nomination in both parties.

Winston Churchill, Britain's Prime Minister, expects that, after the November election in the United States, President Eisenhower will be more receptive to the idea of a meeting with Russia's Georgi Malenkov to talk about peace in the "cold war."

The French have been quietly dropped from the five-power intelligence collective group that meets periodically in Singapore to compare notes on the military situation in Southeast Asia. The four other powers—Britain, U. S., Australia and New Zealand—apparently feared that the French would leak joint planning and military build-up secrets to the Communist Viet Minh in Indo-China.

Edgar Faure, Finance Minister of France, got a cool reception in Washington when he asked for 250 million added dollars to support the French expeditionary corps in Indo-China during 1955. The U. S. has agreed to discuss the subject, but the French will be lucky to get half what they ask.

All Debts May Be Settled Through Bankruptcy Court

There are always a certain number of families in the United States with serious financial troubles. At this time, the number is relatively few. To those few and to their creditors, this column should be of particular interest.

The principal reported causes which throw families into financial difficulties are: Inflation and high taxes, inability to resist "impulse" buying, combined with easy credit, illness or other emergencies, or just plain bad judgment and mismanagement.

Some people in financial difficulty, when threatened with legal proceedings to collect outstanding debts, seek the relief offered them by federal bankruptcy laws.

The purpose of bankruptcy laws is to permit an honest but unfortunate or weak debtor to surrender or account for all his property for the benefit of his creditors and in exchange be discharged of his debts.

Any adult who is insolvent may become a voluntary bankrupt by having his attorney prepare for him a bankruptcy petition, together with schedules of his assets and liabilities, and then file the same in the proper United States district court.

After the debtor is adjudicated a bankrupt he is required to appear for examination as to his assets in the bankruptcy court, and if he fully accounts for his assets and has not violated any of the bankruptcy laws he will thereafter receive a discharge of his debts.

If he is granted a discharge of his debts, he has started a new financial life as of the date he filed bankruptcy. The assets which he thereafter acquires cannot be reached to satisfy the old debts, nor will creditors be permitted to sue him on the old debts.

Dishonest debtors sometimes endeavor to gain advantages for themselves not allowed by the bankruptcy laws. In these instances, upon objections to discharge by creditors, they not only will be denied a discharge of their debts, but the courts will be prone to deal harshly with the offenders if they have violated the criminal laws.

The head of a family is entitled to claim as exempt any property which is exempt under Texas homestead laws, which in the ordinary case will be his home, household furniture, wearing apparel, the family automobile and tools of his trade or profession. However, if any of this property is covered by a mortgage or conditional sales contract he must pay any balance due thereon, or the owner of such mortgage or contract may repossess.

Bankruptcy has a lasting effect upon a person's future credit and in the usual case causes the creditors to lose their entire debt.

Many bankruptcies could be avoided if the "overloaded" debtor would make a timely effort to sit down with his creditors and work out plans for reduced payments over extended periods.

RADAR SCREEN

The establishment of a radar barrier "across the most northerly practical part of North America" has been agreed to in principle by the United States and Canada. This would be well within the Arctic Circle and make a third such protective screen.

Carbon Monoxide Is One of Dangers Of the Cold Wave

AUSTIN: The cold winds of winter will whip up a new threat to Texans' safety.

The threat comes from carbon monoxide, which, Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, characterizes as being invisible, odorless, and tasteless—but deadly.

As cold weather draws near, the danger of carbon monoxide in the home or garage increases. Many people throughout the state are lighting poorly or faulty ventilated heaters and furnaces in their homes or running their cars in closed garages. Closed houses keep the cold out and the deadly fumes in. A few people live to tell about it because someone found them before it was too late.

The burning of any fuel that contains carbon may produce carbon monoxide. This is true of coal, coke, wood, oil, kerosene, gasoline and such gaseous fuels as natural or manufactured gas. Last year seven Texans died of carbon monoxide poisoning, two of them in automobiles.

All heating equipment should be vented to a flue. Keep all rooms ventilated. Do not turn the heater higher than it was intended to run. Never leave gas heating appliances burning while you and your family are asleep. Regulate adjustable air-mixing valves so that enough air is supplied to insure complete combustion of the gas.

If a person is overcome by carbon monoxide they should first be removed to fresh air. In addition open windows and turn off the gas in the room. If the victim has stopped breathing, administer artificial respiration and if possible an inhalator should be used to administer oxygen. Keep the patient warm and lying down until a doctor comes.

DRAFT CALL

The Army has issued a draft call for 23,000 men in December, the same number announced in each of the previous five months. This brings to 1,835,430 the total number drafted or earmarked for induction since selective service was resumed in September, 1950.

WARREN'S

Around the Town . .

(By Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick)

ORCHIDS TO NEBLETT HOSPITAL

It takes good institutions in a community to make a fine community. It takes good homes, churches, schools, businesses, etc. There is one institution that I would like to call special attention to at this time—the Neblett Hospital.

Several weeks ago it was my supposed misfortune to land in the Neblett Hospital for an operation. But it was my good fortune for five days to see a wonderful institution rendering unselfish service to its community.

Day and night I saw doctors, nurses, and others connected with the hospital going the second mile in relieving pain and suffering. I saw doctors and nurses trying to restore health to human bodies that had been neglected for years. Yet, they did what they could. I heard the cry of newborn babies and thanked God for all the advances in medical science and hospital facilities that make it easier for a mother when she goes down in the "valley of the shadow" to give birth to a child. I heard the cry of a little boy who had been severely burned on his face and body. But in a few days he was out of the hospital looking like new again.

One morning a doctor came to my room and told me that they were performing an emergency operation on one of our elderly ladies and that she had requested that I remember her in prayer. The operation was a serious one and the doctors would not predict the outcome, but in a few days this dear woman was out of the hospital and well on her way to recovery.

These cases could be multiplied a thousand-fold and then you would not hear the whole story of the miraculous ministry of Neblett Hospital.

I have been in many hospitals, large and small, making more than two thousand visits in them in the last fourteen years, but I can honestly say I have never seen a finer Christian spirit prevail than that which prevails at Neblett Hospital. Let us all thank God for placing this wonderful institution in our midst. —Strauss Atkinson

P. S. I appreciate Mrs. Clyde Warwick permitting me these words in her column. —S. A.

One of the most convenient new things for the kitchen is the electric knife sharpener. It is safe, fast, accurate, quiet and gives you knives with razor sharpness. You just put the knife in, press the button and out comes a sharp knife. It will sharpen all size knives.

Miss Moss Richardson has a niece, Mrs. Paul Ogilvie, of Ottawa, Canada, who, while visiting in Seattle, Wash., took a sight-seeing tour around the city. The driver took them out to the University of Washington, a co-educational, state-controlled institution which opened for instruction in 1861, and told them this tale: At the time the University was built it was right in town. The campus being some three blocks square. Later the University moved out (at that time WAY out of town) to its present site. They had a far-seeing board of governors who held on to the original land and leased it to the people who built upon it. Now in November of this year after some 70 years both buildings and lands will revert to the University and bring in $700,- 000 or $800,000 rent each year. This was a far-sighted act on the part of the governors for which the university and Seattle are deeply grateful.

Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Neblett left Tuesday to visit with Dr. Neblett's two sisters in Jackson, Tenn., for a few days and going from Tennessee on to visit with their daughter, Dorothy Elizabeth, who is attending St. Charles College out of St. Louis. They will spend the week-end with Dorothy Elizabeth, arriving in St. Louis Friday. Charles Robert Neblett will spend the week they are gone visiting in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burrow.

The Medical Association has been carefully studying the Infantile Paralysis epidemic which makes its periodic path of fear among those who have little children. They have been especially studying the fact that this dread disease seldom hits in the slums of cities and are about to reach the conclusion that people keep their children too clean. There will be a lot of mighty happy little boys when and if the Medical Association decides that dirt behind their ears and under their finger nails is good for them; that is, if they can convince their MAMAS.

"The cost of a thing is the amount of what I will call life which is required to be exchanged for it." —H. D. Thoreau.

Jim Russell, son of Dr. and Mrs. James L. Russell, who is attending the University of Texas Medical College at Galveston, writes that there are five Negro girls enrolled in his classes and they are all brilliant students.

Mrs. Marvel Kirby returned home Sunday from a visit to her daughter's at Corpus Christi.

This verse was sent to Cedric Adams by one of his readers: "Twinkle, twinkle, little star. How I wish I had a car. But when I read the list of dead,

"Just for today I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my luck as it comes, and fit myself to it."

Sunday, after church, we went to a restaurant to eat lunch. Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Wooten were also there with their small son, Ronnie, who is 4½ years old. We stopped to chat for a minute and as we left Ronnie, very excitedly said: "Daddy! Daddy! look at that SKUNK she has around her neck!" It was chilly and I had worn a fur neck piece.

Some time back I read that if you would keep your eggs from cracking when you boil them to pierce the small end with a needle. I didn't think that could be done, but find it can and it will not only keep them from breaking, but makes them shell much easier. Stand the egg on end, hold it with your left hand, hold the needle with your thumb and forefinger, then gently strike the needle with a wooden handle, and it makes a very small hole, which will keep the egg from breaking.

Bill Boedeker, who is retiring from County Attorney of Hockley County with an outstanding record, having gained between 80 and 90 per cent convictions on the cases he has taken into court, was chosen as the man for this week's Hockley Profile.

Bill Boedeker entered West Texas State College in January of 1933. His father had lost money in two banks and was unable to help him so young Boedeker with a couple of friends proved he could develop an aptitude for poverty if necessary.

These three boys rented a room at the Methodist parsonage in the basement. Rev. Jameson was pastor at the time and the parsonage was at 1718 4th Ave. The boys did their own cooking for an entire school year. A tally of funds at the end of the year showed they were able to buy groceries and pay rent with an average expenditure of $3.50 each per month.

One of the reasons for this was an affinity for OATMEAL. They bought oatmeal by the case and almost lived on it during the year, and remained healthy.

Boedeker, who was 6'4", made the freshman basketball team, then moved into the newly constructed Buffalo Courts on the WTSC campus the next year and lettered three years on the varsity.

He captained the team in 1935 and 1936 and was second in scoring only to the Buffaloes' All American player, George Ray Colvin.

Boedeker married a girl he met at West Texas State, Miss Gladys Baer, from Texline. They have two children, Don Weldon, 2½, and Willene, seven months old.

We are glad to hear of the success of this couple from our college who have made such an outstanding record, and whose integrity of character has been evidenced throughout their lives.

Texas is called "The Land of Opportunity" and that is understandable when you know the story of Texans like Haroldson Lafayette Hunt of Dallas, who was practically broke around 1921, went into the oil industry, and now he is reputedly the richest man in the world. His income is said to be a million dollars a week!

Mrs. Jeannette Robbins had as her guest over the week-end her sister, Mrs. Lola Mae Cooper, of Portales, New Mexico.

"Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust." —James 1:13-14.

ROAD CONSTRUCTION

The Bureau of Public Roads estimates that total highway expenditures in the United States will reach $6,400,000,000 in 1954—$600,000,000 greater than in 1953 and 1,110,000 more than in 1952.

AN OYSTER STORY

There once was an oyster whose story I tell
Who found that some sand has got into his shell
It was only a grain but it gave him great pain.
For oysters have feelings—for all they're so plain.
Now, did he berate the harsh workings of fate
Which had brought him to such a deplorable state?
Did he curse out the government—cry for election,
And claim that the sea should give protection?
No—he said to himself as he lay on a shelf,
Since I cannot remove it, I shall try to improve it.
Now the years rolled around as the years always do,
And he came to his ultimate destiny—Stew!
And the small grain of sand that had bothered him so
Was a beautiful pearl all richly aglow.
Now the tale has a moral; for isn't it grand,
What an oyster can do with a morsel of sand
What couldn't we do if we'd only begin
With some of the things that get under our skin.

$281.49 Sends Milk To Korean Children

A total of $281.49 was collected by the Canyon Christian Youth Council Thursday night. This money will send powdered milk overseas to Korea. The milk is given to CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) by the government.
The Trick or Treat for Money was the project for the year. It is also the project of the Texas Christian Youth Council, which is a state-wide interdenominational youth movement.
Milk cartons were placed at the Halloween Carnival Saturday and in church lobbies Sunday.

Karl Ernst Speaks To Student Body

Why are you living? Until you discover your purpose in life there will be no real happiness or satisfaction for each person was created to serve Him and his fellowman. These were the main thoughts stressed in Rev. Karl Ernst's speech in the CCYC youth rally assembly Monday, Oct. 24.

The program, introduced by Al Myers, CCYC president, began with a bit of humor provided by David Miller and then changed to a serious mood with Al reading the 8th chapter of Psalms.

CCYC Enjoys Annual Rally

Marshall Jones kept the young people laughing with this skit as he and Paul Caillet lead a recreation in the CCYC youth rally October 24-25-26.

The rally, which began at 3:30 Sunday afternoon at the Joseph A. Hill Chapel with the installation of CCYC officers, had as its speaker Rev. Karl Ernst from Dumas, who delivered three inspirational messages designed to help the youth of today build a stronger, more useful life through Christ. Speaking first to an assembly of the student body in the CHS auditorium, Rev. Ernst's message was based on the necessity of finding God's will for one's life and achieving that purpose.

His closely related message at the Lutheran Church at 7:30 Monday evening dealt with using one's talents in service to God. Al Myers, CCYC president, presided over the program and lead the singing with Helene Meyer at the piano. David Miller and Charles Neblett served as offering plate bearers.

On Tuesday evening, Rev. Ernst's concluding subject was living a life that magnifies Christ. Al Myers again presided and lead the Ruth Ann Bolton, senior, was dramatically crowned Queen of the Halloween Carnival of 1954. Saturday, Oct. 30, in the high school auditorium. The crowning of the queen was the highlight of the evening. She was crowned in a coronation ceremony following the Carnival in the grade school building.

Previous to the coronation, Mr. Joe A. Gibson, superintendent of schools, delivered a welcoming address and gave the announcements. After that the auditorium was left in darkness for a brief moment. Spotlights then focused on the stage curtain as it was slowly opened revealing the throne. Footlights were then switched on and the march was begun by Anna Marie Barker, pianist for the occasion.

Dovie Keene, mistress of ceremonies, took her place and announced the members of the procession. First came the flower bearers, two couples from the grade school, Cathy Jean Doyle, Jan Thomas Chrisler, Wanda Graham, and Clifford Sherrod. Following were Elizabeth Bailey and Mike McBroom, gift and crown bearers, also from the grade school.

After the children took their places, the representatives of The Eagle's Tale staff and annual staff led the members of the royal court. Representatives in order of appearance were: Lady Alby Kuehler, escorted by Lord David Miller, (Eagle's Tale); Lady Maxine Greene, escorted by Lord Ray Green, (Eagle's Tale); Lady Nancy Adcock, escorted by Don Duncan, (annual staff); Lady Virginia Walker, (annual staff) escorted by Lord Joe Dickerson (Eagle's Tale).

Candidates were: Princess Katy Devenport, escorted by Prince Leonard Miller; Princess Theresa Mickey, escorted by Prince Charles Neblett; Princess Charlotte Crain, escorted by Prince Charles Buchanan; and Princess Ruth Ann Bolton, escorted by Prince Delmar Yarnan.

Unique settings added to the suspense and excitement of the occasion. When all the court had taken their places, Mistress of Ceremonies Dovie Keene introduced Mr. O. H. Schuette, member of the vote counting committee who announced Queen Ruth Ann Bolton, Queen of the Halloween Carnival for 1954.

After receiving the silver trimmed robe of royalty, Queen Ruth Ann took her place on the throne, to be crowned by editor of The Eagle's Tale, Ray Green. Alby Ann Kuehler, co-editor of The Eagle's Tale, presented the gift and announced the program.

The program was as follows: "Singing in the Rain," sung by a girls ensemble, consisting of Mary Sue Bolton, Eva May Howard, Shirley Wheeler, Joy Gray, Rachel Smith, Mary Gladys Marshall, Janet Taylor, Emma Coleman, Anna Jean Howard, Marcus Robinson, Beverly Henson, Betty Stevens, and Fanita Marshall, accompanist.

A cornet trio, Bernie Bob Woodward, Bobby Phillips, and Brian Tolliver, played "April Showers," and Janet Taylor, piano soloist, played "Dark Eyes."

Following the entertainment, Dovie Keene dismissed the attendants, Donald Iverson took pictures, and a mad dash was made to the theatre for the midnight show, "Them."

INTEGRATION

Florida, in the first such brief filed by a state, appealed to the Supreme Court to be allowed adequate time for a gradual and discretionary adjustment of its school system to conform to the Court's decision outlawing segregation. Soil-Saving Group Gets Tax Break Under New Law Expenses incurred by farmers in the prevention of soil erosion have been given favorable tax treatment under the new 1954 Internal Revenue Code.

Prior to enactment of this new provision, the Internal Revenue Service had attempted, with varying success, to require the capitalization of expenses incurred in contour farming, terracing and other soil erosion work. Under this rule, expenditures could be deducted over a period of years, but the courts in some instances had allowed farmers to deduct these expenses in the year incurred.

The new law permits farmers to deduct in each year all expenditures incurred in that year for "soil or water conservation in respect of land used in farming, or for the prevention of erosion of land used in farming."

This deduction is limited, however, to 25% of the gross income derived from farming for the taxable year. Any excess over and above the 25% is deductible in succeeding years, but in each year the entire deduction is limited to 25% of gross income.

This liberalizing provision does not allow the deduction of expenditures for the purchase, construction, improvement or installation of depreciable machinery, tile, masonry, metal or wood structures, appliances and facilities such as tanks, pipes, reservoirs, canals, dams, pumps, and conduits. Such expenditures, as under the prior law, must be capitalized and deducted over the estimated useful life of the asset.

Those expenses which may be deducted include the cost of leveling, grading, terracing, contour furrowing, construction, control and protection of diversion canals, drainage ditches, earthen dams, water works, outlets and ponds, brush removal and planting of windbreaks and other treatment or moving of earth, provided that these expenditures are incurred for the prevention of erosion of farm lands.

A farmer may elect to deduct these expenses incurred in 1954 on his 1954 tax return, or if no such expenses were incurred in 1954, may make the election on his tax return for the first year in which such expenditures are incurred. However, if the election is not made at that time, the taxpayer must obtain the consent of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue before being allowed to expense these items.

Once made, an election is binding for all subsequent years, unless the taxpayer requests and obtains authority to make the change.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

"Fire Power"

Many people have asked me how well prepared we are to defend ourselves. This question is prompted by confusion generated by one speaker talking about the inadequacies of our armed forces, while another says that we have nothing to worry about. I wish that all of you could have joined me in witnessing an Air Force fire power demonstration at Eglin Field, Florida, recently.

Incidentally, General Dan Campbell is deputy commander of this base. He was commanding officer of the Pampa Air Field during World War II. Needless to say, I had a wonderful visit with the General, his lovely wife, Ruth, and their fine daughters. They all have a yearning to come back to the Panhandle.

It would be impossible to draw a word picture of the unbelievable punch that could be delivered in a matter of minutes on an aggressor nation. To witness man-made planes breaking the sound barrier before your very eyes, while the pilot is talking to you over a loud-speaker system, has you entranced until the sound waves created by this speed result in a concussion that nearly knocks you out of your seat. One display had been planned for 3,000 feet but had to be taken up to 10,000 for fear the concussion might burst the spectators' eardrums.

We also witnessed formation flying by several planes doing acrobatics in unison that could not have been performed by a single plane ten years ago. The exhibition included both jet propelled and conventional type aircraft, which pointed out the tremendous difference between the speed of the propelled driven craft as compared to the jet. Speaking of jets, it is well remembered that we have an air base here in the Panhandle near Amarillo that trains the boys who keep these planes flying. The pilots get most of the credit, but the boys who really deserve acclaim are those mechanics that we train at Amarillo Air Force Base. One loose nut or defective screw could mean untold death and destruction.

Speaking of Amarillo and the Panhandle, who did we run into at Eglin Air Force Base but our good friend Bob Izzard. He was really covering the show with both television and radio equipment. He could be described as a whirlwind with a grin, a camera and a sound device. Also was Bob Batten, formerly manager of the Childress Chamber of Commerce. Bob was down from Dallas where he now works.

If Moscow thinks that this country couldn't have planes over the Kremlin in short order, she had better revise her thinking.

"Crime in 1953"

Statistics reflect that 1953 saw 2,159,080 major crimes committed in the United States during that year. This meant that crime was up 6%, with all offenses on the rise except murder. Here is the time table of crime for 1953:

1 major crime committed every 14.6 seconds.

1 felonious homicide committed every 41 minutes.

1 burglary committed every 1.1 minutes.

1 robbery committed every 8.3 minutes.

1 larceny committed every 24.9 seconds.

1 aggravated assault committed every 5.7 minutes.

1 auto theft committed every 2.3 minutes.

"About Women"

In 1900 there were 37 million females in the United States; in 1950 there were 76 million. This means that percentage wise there was a 2.9% increase in the number of women as compared to the number of men. This may account for the prosperity that we have enjoyed. An article in the New York Herald Tribune in 1950 quoted these figures:

Women influence 85 percent of all purchases of consumer goods.

Women are beneficiaries of 80 percent of all life insurances.

Women inherit 70 percent of the estates left by men.

Women own 66 percent of all privately owned government bonds.

Women own 50 percent of all privately owned stock in corporations.

Women hold 65 percent of all the accounts in mutual savings banks.

Local Dairymen Tops in D.H.I.A.

Canyon dairymen topped the list again in September in the Randall County Dairy Herd Improvement Association News. Louis Henders, Richmond Hales, and Neil Downing had herds ranking high in milk and butterfat with only four herds being listed in this bracket.

Haleswood Farm and Neil Downing also had herds represented in the bracket for high cows in milk production. Two more local herds were listed in the cows high in butterfat. These were the herds of Haleswood Farm and Louis Henders.

In the 60 to 70 pound class the two local dairymen represented were Richmond Hales and Neil Downing. The four making the 50 to 60 pound class were Haleswood Farms, Richmond Hales, and Louis Henders. The four men also repeated in the 40 to 50 pound class.

WARWICK'S

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

The Canyon Eagles football team is still undefeated which makes for greater happiness on the part of local football fans. They've seen the Eagles perform a lot of thrilling plays this season and they probably have many more in store for them during the remainder of the season. Coach Harrison is due a lot of credit for his work in building up a really top-notch team this year.

Speaking of football, had another report this week from the drug store quarterbacks, mainly Riley Troth and Roland Black. They said they missed Mrs. Lee Foster Friday night. Mrs. Foster was probably serious the week before when she made up her mind not to sit with the drugstore quarterbacks. The problem seems to be, "Is it more serious for Mrs. Foster to stay away from the drugstore quarterbacks and spoil their fun or is it worse for the D.Q.B.'s to sit with Mrs. Foster and spoil her enjoyment of the game?"

Friday night the football game is here and the Eagles meet the Dumas Demons. Dumas has been in the habit of clipping the Eagles' tail feathers up until this year but we're hoping for a reversal of the situation this year. This year we hope the Eagles go home howling in defeat. By the way, you can get tickets for this game at just about any place about the square you want. Just drop in and ask for them between now and be sure to do it before it's too late. Roland Black said the Chamber of Commerce would get the tickets distributed as early this week as possible. They should all be distributed by now.

If you weren't in town Saturday morning you really missed something. High school and grade school students were out painting Halloween art work on merchants' windows. Many of those works were really ingenious, too. There were several cash prizes made but winners were not determined at this writing. Halloween art should be encouraged to a greater degree and any night-time Halloween activity, such as trick-or-treat, should be supervised by parents.

Judge Roy Joe Stevens said Saturday that December 4 would be the voting date for the Canyon-Amarillo E-way, or whatever other name you may have for it. He said the commissioners court liked to comply with the people's wishes as early as possible and they had a petition signed by many qualified voters asking for another bond election. About the only thing that changed about the issue was the money and it seems the longer you wait on anything these days, the higher the price goes.

Herschel Anderson seems to have started something sort of new and different in the Halloween party he held at his business Saturday. Such an activity should be a really good public relations program between a businessman and his buying public. With Thanksgiving and Christmas coming up, it's a good time to start thinking about holiday parties between the merchants and their customers.

If you haven't noticed the true beauty of autumn this year you have really missed several weeks of colorful glory. The tree leaves have turned a variety of brilliant colors this fall and usually they just hang on the trees and stay green until the first freeze and then turn black. This autumn cold weather has come on gradually and given nature a chance to work slowly and give the leaves the brilliant hues we expect and desire for autumn.

Well, here we go from the sublime to the ridiculous again. The old saying, "give till it hurts," has been turned around by most people today and they hurt until they give.

And don't let anyone kid you about the old saying, "A fool and his money are soon parted," a fool doesn't have any money to begin with.

A true friend is one who won't tell a bigger fish story than you simply because he has longer arms.

Texas State Fair Breaks Attendance Records of Past

The State Fair of Texas closed its amazing 1954 exposition by setting a new national record for annual fairs. Attendance for the 16 day totaled 2,506,463, which was 223,751 more than last year. The total shattered the previous national record of 2,387,140 which the fair established in 1952.

The record was set despite two rainy days near the end of the fair. The exposition closed, however, under clear skies with 190,396 on hand for the last day, biggest closing day of the fair's history. An estimated 20,000 people attended the Cotton Bowl Religious Festival on the final Sunday.

Biggest day of the fair was Rural Youth Day, October 16, when a new world's record for a single day's attendance at any annual exposition was set. Gatekeepers counted 296,784 persons entering the grounds on that day, including more than 100,000 4-H Club members, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers from all sections of the state.

About 68,000 people paid out $272,734 to see 24 performances of "The King and I" in the Auditorium. Ice Cycles of 1955 drew 115,125 patrons, and 50,899 saw the Joie Chitwood Thrill Show. The House Beautiful Pace Setter House drew over 80,000 visitors, just about all that could file through the house during the 12 hours a day that it was open. A fabulous collector of historical and costly gems in the Women's Building attracted 685,527.

"It's been a great fair in every way," said State Fair president R. L. Thornton. "We've exceeded every fair attendance record in this country, and set a world's record for a single day. Now we're going to work toward an even greater fair next year."

Dates of the 1955 fair will be October 8 through 23. The Texas-Oklahoma football game will again be an opening day feature.
